- PitchBook LCD Q2 2026 direct lending league tables: The rankings are based on league table credit awarded to qualifying lenders for eligible transactions submitted to PitchBook by the applicable deadline, as well as eligible deals tracked by PitchBook news and research.
  Transactions are limited to qualifying private credit investments in companies headquartered in the US and Europe and exclude broadly syndicated loans, real estate financings, debt provided to public companies, and other out-of-scope transaction types.
  PitchBook LCD's direct lending league tables are designed to capture activity across both PE-backed and non-PE-backed transactions. The tables include a broad range of private debt financings, such as acquisition financings, buyouts, recapitalizations, refinancings, and general corporate debt transactions.
  Multiple debt facilities completed for the same company on the same closing date are combined and counted as a single transaction for league table purposes. Credit is allocated based on qualifying debt commitments and lender roles reported for each transaction.
